

Child and Family Services Update

July 3, 2003

ROYAL FAMILY KIDS CAMP

Offers a great opportunity for 24 lucky children, involved in ongoing services through

DCFS

Ages 7-9

To attend a delightful
1-week camp.

(August 11-15, 2003)

The camp will be held at Camp Rogers, in the beautiful Uinta Mountains. The program will include swimming, exploring the camp, Bible stories, music, and a variety of non-competitive sports. More than 5 "Activity Centers" to choose from, including woodworking, art and dress-up.

Opportunities to develop good attitudes toward peers and to learn about the outdoors are everywhere. Special guest speakers and entertainers make each year a memorable experience. One counselor for every two children.

Applications must be received by August 1st. Space is limited to the first 24 applicants. The cost of the camp is $20 per child (checks payable to Royal Family Kids' Camp).

Child and Family Services Update

July 3, 2003

If you know of a child in a kinship, foster or adoptive placement or a child who we are doing in-home services with who would benefit, please call Val Lowery, 538-4021, to register. Call soon to reserve a spot for that special child who needs this camp.

Patti Van Wagoner, Deputy director